Sonoma Forge Expands Iconic WaterBridge Faucet with Matte Black Finish

The trending finish is available on wall-mount lavs with waterfall spout

(Petaluma, CA, December 7, 2021)

Twenty years ago, Sonoma Forge elevated humble plumbing parts to design status with the introduction of its WaterBridge Collection. Over the years, the line has continued to grow while responding to market trends. That tradition continues with the addition of a Matte Black finish for the WaterBridge Wall-Mount Lav faucet with Waterfall Spout.

“Matte Black is one of the most popular finishes of the moment, offering a timeless look that’s well suited to a range of bathroom styles,” said Erik Ambjor, Sonoma Forge President. “Pairing our iconic WaterBridge design with this sophisticated finish elevates its rustic aesthetic into the modern-industrial era.”

The WaterBridge Collection emulates rustic raw materials, such as off-the-shelf copper tees, elbows, and pipe, for a beautiful effect. The wall-mount lav with waterfall spout adds an Asian influence with the look of split bamboo.

The WaterBridge faucets, shower systems, and accessories also are available in deck-mount models and with an elbow spout as well as choice of lever or cross handles. Other available finishes include Rustic Nickel, Rustic Copper, Satin Nickel or Oil-Rubbed Bronze and many others on a special-order basis.

The faucets are forged in America.

The Matte Black finish is also available as a standard finish in the WherEver Collection, a widespread version of WaterBridge, and the Brut Collection, which pays homage to the beauty of Sonoma Valley vineyards with soft lines that enhance raw plumbing parts.
