(Petaluma, CA, June 20, 2023) Sonoma Forge now offers its Thermostatic Shower System as part of the iconic WherEver Collection. New WherEver Collection concealed shower system

“Combining the safety and convenience of Therm technology with our clean-yet-rustic WherEver Shower Collection was a natural next step. Now designers and homeowners have even more options for creating a comfortable and customized luxury shower.”

—Erik Ambjor, Sonoma Forge President

Like all Sonoma Forge thermostatic showers, the new WherEver concealed shower system combines safety and convenience. The system features a set-it-and-forget-it temperature control valve along with shut-offs that control the water flow to each function, such as rainhead or plunger-style shower head, hand shower on hook or slidebar, tub filler or footwash, as well as multiple body sprays. A designer’s go-to product, WherEver allows you to build your own unique showering experience.

“Combining the safety and convenience of Therm technology with our clean-yet-rustic WherEver Shower Collection was a natural next step. Now designers and homeowners have even more options for creating a comfortable and customized luxury shower,” said Erik Ambjor, President of Sonoma Forge.

The new WherEver Collection concealed shower system features the ultimate in flexibility with a variety of accessory options, from matching towel bars and robe hooks to unique shower door handles to decorative floor drains, to create a polished, harmonious, and stylish look throughout the bathroom. Completing the look is a selection of designer finishes: Rustic Nickel, Satin Nickel, Rustic Copper, Oil-Rubbed Bronze, and Matte Black.
