(Petaluma, CA, November 18, 2025) Sonoma Forge, manufacturer of luxury plumbing fixtures inspired by humble plumbing parts, proudly showcases its expanding collection of wall-mounted bath faucets. Offering an elegant fusion of form and function, these distinctive lavatory faucets serve as architectural focal points, elevating the design of rustic and industrial baths. From the raw-yet-elegant WaterBridge to the industrial-inspired STRAP, Sonoma Forge's wall mount faucets create a sleek, minimalist look that blends artistry with practicality. Floating above the sink, they free up valuable countertop space and make vanity tops effortless to keep clean.

—Erik Ambjor, Sonoma Forge President

“Wall-mounted faucets offer a striking combination of sculptural beauty and thoughtful design, appealing to those who value clean lines, open spaces, and elevated living,” said Erik Ambjor, president of Sonoma Forge. “Because they’re mounted on the wall, these faucets naturally draw the eye, becoming centerpieces within the bath,” Ambjor added, noting that wall-mounted faucets are embraced by discerning homeowners, architects, and interior designers alike.

The Wall-Mounted Wherever faucet elegantly fuses form and function

Wall-mounted faucets lend a sense of airiness and minimalist simplicity. An ideal fit where countertop space is limited, they enable a clean, uncluttered vanity surface. In contrast to deck-mounted faucets that sit on the countertop, wall-mounted styles make cleaning quick and effortless.

Another key advantage of wall-mounted bath faucets is the ability to customize height. This flexibility allows for personalized ergonomics and perfectly balanced aesthetics, a must in today's luxury bathrooms where every detail is deliberate.

Sonoma Forge's wall-mounted bath faucets offer a balance of visual drama and practical functionality. Styles are available across signature collections including WaterBridge, Wherever, CiXX, and STRAP. For those seeking a more hygienic, hands-free experience, Sans Hands touch-free designs combine innovative technology with Sonoma Forge's distinctive style.

Balancing contemporary appeal with lasting timelessness, Sonoma Forge's collection of wall-mounted bath faucets elevates both overall design and the daily bathing experience.
